DWELLINGS RUINED.

Wind, Hail and Rain Do Considerable Amount of Damage, Reaching to About One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Hastings, Neb., May 26.—Fifteen persons dead, more than a score injured, a hundred houses, barns and small buildings wrecked and losses of $100,000 are reported as the known work of a series of winds, hail and rainstorms, two of which were tornadoes, that passed over Clay, Franklin and Kearney counties Sunday night.

Most of the damage was caused in rural regions, and reports of casualties and damage were late in coming in. As far as reported the casualties are as follows:

Near Norman, Neb.—Dead: Daniel McCurry, Robert McCurry, Mrs. John Wehlevier, Mrs. Art Bacon, Mrs. C. A. Tipple.

Near Upland—Dead: Lutheran minister, name unknown; Mrs. John Peters, Mrs. Chris Lathers and mother.

At Pauline—Dead: Mrs. James Muma and child, James Muma, Frank Craig, Flora Palmer, John Palmer.

Near Normal, at the home of Daniel Curry, a number of relatives and friends were spending the day, and not an inmate escaped death or injury. Two miles south of Upland German Lutheran services were being held in a schoolhouse when the storm struck and demolished it, killing four of the occupants, including the minister, and injuring a number of others.

UNDER WATER.

Fully Five Hundred Houses Said to Be in This Condition.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 26.—On Monday morning it was estimated that fully 200 houses along the bottom of the Canadian river in this vicinity are under water. Some of them have been washed away. In the western part of the city fifty houses are in three feet of water, while in the business district threshing machine engines have been pressed into service in order to pump water from basements.

A train was run out of this city on the Frisco to a point near the Choctaw, where the passengers were transferred and brought here after having run through a mile of water.

Within the history of Oklahoma the rivers and streams have not assumed the dangerous stage that exists at present. From all portions of the territory come reports of disaster from rain and flood.

New York, May 26.—Dr. E. Charles Wendt of this city shot and killed himself at his apartments in Paris during a temporary aberration of the mind. On this subject he wrote many papers. He was also associated with Dr. F. G. Shradley as an editor of the Medical Review. After going to Europe Dr. Wendt continued to contribute valuable papers to medical publications in this country.

POSSESSOR OF RIFLE.

It Is Alleged There Was a Bullet in the Weapon Intended for President Roosevelt and Another for Kaiser.

Walla, Walla, Wash., May 26.—Joseph Becker, a radical Socialist, is in the city jail here on suspicion of having intended to kill President Roosevelt Monday. The episode was kept quiet until after the president's departure. Becker is accused of having remarked at Pendleton, Or., during last week that he had one bullet for President Roosevelt and another for Emperor William of Germany. He left for Walla Walla with a Winchester, and his partner, Pat Kline, followed him here, notifying the police. Becker was located, working in a butcher shop. He was arrested and on being sweated disclosed the location of his rifle, which was secreted away in a farmer's barn along the line of march. Becker is a Swiss. Police here think that a tragedy was narrowly averted.

BET MADE.

Odds Given and Accepted That the Reliance Will Prove Victor.

New York, May 26.—"There is not a possible chance for America's cup being conceded to the Shamrock III," said a yacht owner and member of the New York Yacht club, who wagered $1500 to $1000 that the Reliance will win in one, two, three order. David Barrie, Sir Thomas Lipton's commercial manager in this country, took the bet. Mr. Barrie was somewhat astonished when the American, in discussing the chances of the yachts, made the bold statement that the Shamrock III would take one or the series of races, but when the offer was made to back his opinion at the odds quoted he promptly covered. Mr. Barrie acknowledged that the wager had been made, but refused to name the member of the New York Yacht club whose money he expects to win.

It Is Said He Will Be Made President by Majority.

New Orleans, May 26.—Ships from Spanish Honduras brought the news that congress is discussing Bonilla's status, and the majority will install him as constitutional president, the minority seeking to appoint him provisional president for one year and order a new election. Officials who fled have been permitted to return. Sierra escaped and is said to be in Panama, whence he will sail for the United States.

Ryan and accepted the money for the Tynner letter. According to the Federal officers, Johns' first offer for the letter was $5000. Ryan refused to pay that, when Johns agreed to compromise for $2500. Johns and Ryan met at the Gibson house in this city, Jan. 12, when Ryan paid over the money and in return received the letter which was in advertising the get-rich-quick scheme. Subsequently Ryan paid Johns $2000 more for other services.

Five Chinamen Captured.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 26.—Five Chinamen were captured just after they had landed on this side of the Niagara river. A closed carriage, supposed to have been on the way to the river front for the Chinamen, hastily moved away when the driver saw the Chinamen under arrest. Shots fired to stop the driver were answered by shots from the carriage, and a general shooting followed. A window of the carriage was broken. So far as known, no person was injured. The Chinamen were locked up pending a hearing.

It will help to buy a home, provide in time of sickness and insure a competency and the comforts of life in old age. ### A NEGRO SHOOTING SCRAPE.

There were lively times in the rear of Dobrovolsky's saloon for a few minutes yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, three negroes being the principal actors. U. E. McGrew, better known as "Professor," who works at the Exchange shaving parlor, was one of the principals and Mansfield Haynes the other, while the other negro, Willis Hines, was an unwilling party to the affair and used by Mansfield for breastworks. It appears there has been bad feeling between Haynes and McGrew for some time. Haynes was in the saloon drinking with Hines when McGrew entered, it is alleged, and threw a shot gun down on him. Haynes grabbed Hines and held him so that McGrew could not shoot without hitting Hines, and thus, according to spectators they dodged and waltzed around and gesticulated and argued the case until they got out the back door. Here a shot was fired that tore through the left side of Mansfield's coat, struck a brick wall and glanced into a fence. Mansfield then grabbed McGrew and downed him and beat him with his fist until they were separated. Both had their clothes torn and McGrew's right eye was closed up when the melee was over.

McGrew and Haynes were both taken in charge by City Secretary Spell, who happened to be near, and Colored Policeman Bailey Bowen. McGrew was subsequently taken to the jail. Mansfield was released in a few minutes.

DEMANDED CASH.

Man's Brother Refused to Comply and Sensational Scene Ensued.

Trenton, N. J., May 26.—"I will shoot you before morning," said Charles Virog to his brother, the Rev. Stephen Virog, as he rushed out of the door of the latter's residence late at night, hatless and coatless. The sight of the pistol in the hands of the wildlooking man deterred any one of the many passersby from making an attempt to stop or capture him. Later it was learned by the police that the fugitive, who is thirty years old and lives at Passaic, came to his brother's house and, after making a demand for money, tried to kill him, the minister having refused him the money.

The latter dodged when the visitor's revolver was fired and the bullet was imbedded in the wall. Before he could take aim again his brother grappled with him, but in the struggle Charles managed to discharge three remaining cartridges, one of which just grazed the head of the minister. It had been a long time since the brothers had met, Charles having returned only recently from Europe. The police are looking for the would-be murderer.

A fine musical program will be given and Governor George D. Neal of Navasota will deliver an address. Decoration of the graves of deceased members at the city cemetery will follow.

Rev. J. V. Coombs of Indianapolis, Ind., lectured at the Christian church last night on "Strange Things and Funny People." The church was well filled by an appreciative audience and the lecture proved to be a rare treat. Rev. Coombs has just closed a meeting in Houston as a result of which there were twenty-five accessions to the church.

The program of graduating exercises of the Bryan High School, colored section, occurring tonight, contains some attractive numbers, and should prove quite entertaining to all the friends of the school. Seats will be reserved for white people, and invitation is extended by the principal to such white friends of the school as may care to attend, and an earnest desire is expressed that some white citizens will attend.

The closing exercises of Allen Academy will be held at the opera house Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock, and the public is cordially invited to attend. A splendid program will be carried out, interspersed with musical numbers by the Academy orchestra. There are two debates. The first by the undergraduates, "Resolved, That labor organizations are detrimental to the country." Affirmative, S. I. Dunn; Negative, George Chance. The debate of the graduates will be "Resolved, That combinations tending to monopolize industry should be prohibited." Affirmative, Roy G. Buchanan; Negative, Robert Collier. Other topics are College Athletics pro and con, the new bird law, College Education, etc.

TRYING TO INDICT.

Special Grand Jury of Jackson County Still in Session.

Jackson, Ky., May 26.—While the special grand jury is still sitting in effort to indict the assassins of Marcum, Cockrill and Cox, members of the state militia sent here to preserve order are scouring the country in an effort to get together witnesses and bring them here indicted Monday evening. A squad of six men, in charge of Lieutenant Morton Craig of Louisville, an officer of the artillery company, is accompanying the special. Charles T. Little left here for Winchester to bring Curtis Jett, under arrest there and confined in the Clark county jail. While on Monday indicted jointly with Curtis Jett for the murder of J. B. Marcum, it is stated that White has gone to the home of his mother, in Leslie county, some forty miles distant.

CURTIS JETT.

The grand jury will ask for the enforced attendance of Captain John Patrick, Moses Feltner, Tom Cockrill and Capt. Patrick, alleged to have witnessed the assassination. Town Marshal James Cockrill and Feltner have made affidavit stating that certain officials had hired four men to assassinate James B. Marcum.

Tom Cockrill, who is the young leader of the Cockrill faction, is wanted to tell about the assassination of Dr. Cox, it being stated that he knows the names of all the men who were in the stable at the time.

Mountainers Monday night attacked the soldiers and there was a council of war to ask for more troops. It is reported here that Curtis Jett has made a confession that implicates prominent persons.

Extra precautions have been taken to protect E. J. Ewin. He is guarded constantly by a strong detail. His testimony before the grand jury caused the indictments of Jett and White.

There was a hostile move made against him Monday in the courthouse, but officers and soldiers warned all not to give details. Belvin Ewin fears for his life. His family is greatly alarmed.

RAVE OFFICERS.

Badly Burned in Their Efforts to Save Inmates of Burning House.

New York, May 26.—Prompt and heroic work by two policemen, one of whom was so badly burned that he was crazed by pain, saved the lives of several women and children who had been caught in a burning building in Fulton street, Brooklyn. When the police and firemen reached the scene women and children were at the windows of the building calling for help. Policeman William McAuley entered the building and on the top floor found Mrs. Howard Murray unconscious. He carried her to a window and then succumbed, having been burned about the face and hands. The pain from his burns crazed him and he had to be placed in a straightjacket at the hospital. In the meantime policemen and firemen rescued other women and children who were asleep when the fire broke out.

Proclamation About Rooks.

Austin, May 26.—Governor Lanham has issued a proclamation to the effect that the state text book bill board will receive sealed proposals at any time before July 1 from publishers of text books to be used in the public schools of Texas. Contract is to be for five years. Each bidder must deposit with the state treasurer $500 for each book offered as a guarantee that the contract will be carried out.

Decoration Day to Be Observed.

Austin, May 26.—The governor has announced that Saturday, Decoration day, will be observed by the departments closing.

Fatally Wounded.

Austin, May 26.—News reached here from Kyle that Robert Blum had been shot and fatally wounded.

Found Dead at Beaumont.

Beaumont, Tex., May 26.—Bert Powler, a young married man of Dallas, was found dead in this city.

Meeting in Aid of Jews.

New York, May 26.—Grover Cleveland telegraphed to the committee in charge that he would be present at the mass-meeting at Carnegie hall in aid of the Jews who suffered by the Kishineff massacre. Mayor Low will preside.
Among those who will speak, in addition to Mr. Cleveland and the mayor, will be Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn; President Jacob Schurman of Cornell University, Rev. R. S. McArthur, Bishop Potter and Archbishop Farley.

Judge Ide Returns Home.

St. Johnsburg, Vt., May 26.—Judge Henry C. Ide of the Philippine commission has reached his home here, having spent part of his six months' furlough en route. He will start on his return to Manila early in August.

Virtual Increase of Wages.

Chicago, May 26.—The Allis-Chalmers Machine Making plant on Twelfth street will open after ten days' idleness.
A settlement was reached with the representatives of all the trades employed there. The 1500 men go back to work with a virtual increase in wages of 10 cents and a nine-hour day.

Crown Bid Twelve Cents.

New Orleans, May 26.—W. P. Brown, local bull leader in the cotton market, who has just returned from a visit to New York, bid August up to 12 cents at opening of the market. This advance is twenty-one points above closing Monday. He offered to take everything all the way from 11.70, closing figures on Monday, to 12 cents. When that mark was reached he bid for 20,000 bales, but not a single contract for even 100 bales were filled at him. All months took on substantial gains, but August went higher than other options and established a new record for the season.

Nearly Fifty Arrests Made.

Montreal, May 26.—Nearly fifty arrests have been made of strikers who were concerned in the attacks upon the cars on St. Catherine and St. Dennis streets Sunday afternoon. Among the men arrested was Business Manager Aub of the local union, who is charged with intimidation. Instructions were given by Attorney General Archambault that bail was not to be accepted for any one arrested in connection with the strike until they had appeared in court. As a result, Monday, being a legal holiday, the cells of the police station have been fairly well filled.

Boy Shoots a Girl.

Plainfield, N. J., May 26.—William James, ten years old, is under arrest, charged with shooting Theresa Watson of the same age. Both were members of a party of boys and girls who ran away from their homes here, but did not go far. The Watson girl cried to go home, and young James shot her with a Flo-bert rifle. One of her wounds is dangerous.

Next Year at Dallas.

Nashville, May 26.—The general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church adjourned its session upon the conclusion of devotional exercises, and an address on temperance was delivered by Mrs. Bettie Mayo. The assembly selected Dallas as the next place of meeting.

Sentenced to Death.

San Juan, P. R., May 26.—Pedro Diaz convicted of murder at Humacao last August during a political riot, has been sentenced to death. Notice of an appeal to the supreme court was filed.
Diaz will probably be hanged in the penitentiary here July 31. The natives are making desperate efforts to save the prisoner's life.

Died in Friend's Arms.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 26.—Stuart Pelpan, who was nearly eighty years old and once conducted the leading boarding school for boys in Poughkeepsie, having numbered the late Cornelius Vanderbilt among his pupils, was attacked with heart disease while reading the market quotations in a broker's office here. He died in a friend's arms.

Cuban Children in California.

San Diego, Cal., May 26.—A party of seven Cuban children arrived here in charge of Secretary Pierce of the Theosophical Brotherhood. They were taken at once to the homestead at Point Loma. The children came direct from Cuba. It is understood they came by way of New Orleans and no obstacles were placed in the way of their entering the United States.

En Route to England.

San Francisco, May 26.—Lieutenant H. H. Shackleton, R. N., arrived here on the steamer Ventura from Australia on his way to England to make a report upon the progress of Antarctic explorations.

Died of Apoplexy.

Mobile, Ala., May 26.—T. H. Boykin, a traveling man, whose home was Meridian, Miss., died of apoplexy in a restaurant here. Boykin was a representative of a St. Louis house.

Jett and White Indicted.

Louisville, Ky., May 26.—Curtis Jett and Tom White have been indicted by the special grand jury at Jackson for the murder of James B. Marcum, who was assassinated as a result of the Hargis-Cockrill feud.

THE SCOLD'S BRIDLE.

Brutal Punishment to Which Women Were Once Subjected.

The brank, or scold's bridle, or gos-sip's bridle, was neither more nor less than a muzzle. It was in general use in Great Britain from the sixteenth to the eighteenth century, and in Scotland as well women were muzzled for certain offenses, some at least of them more imaginary than real. The instrument of torture, even a dog's leather muzzle, is uncomfortable; how much more the scold's muzzle? It consisted, according to a high authority, Mr. W.
Jewitt, of a kind of crown or framework of iron, which was locked upon the head, and it was armed in front with a gag, a plate or a sharp cutting knife or point, which was placed in the poor woman's mouth so as to prevent her moving her tongue, or it was so placed that if she did move it or attempt to speak it was cut in a most frightful manner. With this cage upon her head and with the gag firmly pressed and locked against her tongue the miserable creature, whose sole offending perhaps was that she raised her voice in defense of her social rights against a brutal and besotted husband or had spoken honest truth of some one high in office in her town, was paraded through the streets, led by a chain by the hand of a bellman, the beadle or the constable or market cross, to be subjected to every conceivable insult and degradation, without even the power left her of asking for mercy or of promising amendment for the future, and when the punishment was over she was turned out from the town hall or the place where the brutal punishment had been inflicted, maimed, disfigured, bleeding, faint and degraded, to be the subject of comment and jeering among her neighbors and to be reviled by her persecutors.—Fireside Magazine.

Oriental View of Womanhood.

The oriental idea of the freedom which American women enjoy does not accord with that of Americans. One Hindoo lady expressed herself as greatly shocked that American men should compel their women to go about in public unprotected, their faces exposed to the gaze of strangers, and a Hindoo gentleman with whom we talked thus expressed himself on the subject of oriental treatment of women:

"You say that we do not honor our women. Why, let me tell you that all Hindoo boys, till they are ready to learn the ways of men, are taught by their mothers. We are subject to our mothers, and we know what you occi-dentials do not yet seem to realize—that to have good men and good citizens we must have good mothers. You will hardly find a Hindoo man, whatever his caste, daring to go against the counsel of his mother. Can you say as much for American men?"

Could as much, do our readers think, be said for American men? There are no asylums for helpless fathers and mothers in the orient. So long as there is a corner and a crust to be shared the parents in the oriental family have the lion's share.—Household.

Smoking in Spain.

In Spain people smoke incessantly under all conditions, at all hours and in all places, except in church. Men smoke in the railway carriages; they smoke in all the tram cars; they smoke in all the minor theaters; they smoke in all the restaurants, in the hotel dining rooms, and, of course, in the cafes.
In business offices the merchant and his clerks smoke. In shops the shop-man, while trying to sell goods to a lady, will stop to roll a cigarette, which, when lighted, he will puff in her face. You see conductors and drivers of tram cars smoking. All the hackney cabmen smoke all the time, while even coachmen and footmen of private carriages sometimes smoke on the box. Beggars approach you, cigarette in mouth, to whine for alms. If you ask for tickets at a railway office, the clerk lays down his cigarette as he hands you the dingy bits of pasteboard.
The innumerable peddlers all smoke cigarettes all the time.—J. A. Hart in Argonaut.

Origin of the Tomato.

The English word of direct Indian origin most frequently in use is tomato. A native of tropical or subtropical America, it was cultivated by the subjects of the Incas and Monte-zumas, as well as by the other semi-civilized natives, long before the arrival of Europeans on this hemisphere under the name of tumati or tomati.
Though introduced into Europe almost as early as its congener, the potato, it was many years before it made its way into popular favor. There it was first known to the English as love apple, to the French as pomme d'amour and to the Italians as pomi d'amore, and these names are still in use, perpetuating the old, widespread notion that its use as food had an influence on the amatory passions.

School Customs in China.

Many strange school customs prevail in China. The girls in that country seldom go to school unless they are the children of very rich people. School work begins before daylight, and after studying their lessons aloud for two hours the pupils recite them. They then go home to breakfast, after which they return and study again till dinner time. In the afternoon they go again to school to prepare lessons for the following day. By this time it is night. This goes on every day of the week, for there is no such thing as the Sunday holiday.

Billion and Trillion.

There are two systems of numera-tion in use at the present day, commonly called the English and the French systems. In the former the billion is a million of millions, a trillion a million of billions and each denomination is a million times the one preceding.
In the latter (which is the system used in the United States) the billion is a thousand millions, and each denomination is a thousand times the preceding.

Why He Was Single.

"Why don't you marry?" asked one Frenchman of another.

"Because I must do it on certain conditions."

"What conditions?"

"Well, you know, the lady must be beautiful, rich and a fool. If she isn't rich and beautiful, I won't take her, and if she isn't a fool she won't take me!"

She Could Spell Too.

While waiting in the reception room for their hostess some visitors were entertained by that lady's four-year-old daughter. One of the callers remarked to the other:

"She is not very p-r-e-t-t-y."

"No," instantly replied the child; "I am not very p-r-e-t-t-y, but I am very s-m-a-r-t!"—New York Times.

The Publishers' Error.

"The publishers told Arthur that he would have to rewrite a good portion of his book before they could bring it out."

"Humph! I should think they would have had him rewrite some of the bad portions."—Kansas City Journal.

Musical Diagnosis.

"What an awful voice that man's got!" said the manager, who was listening to the throaty tenor.

"Call that a voice?" said his friend.
"It's a disease!"—Punch.

The Same Thing.

A New York paper asks, "Will man become obsolete?"

Don't most of them get married?—
Columbus Enquirer-Sun.

Mrs. Fred Vnrath,

No. 228 Territorial Street, Benton Harbor, Mich.

Mrs. Fred Vnrath.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish cares and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood.
A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats.

Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth.
It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering?
Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.
